TREASURER-ELECT ERIC SCHMITT ANNOUNCES TRANSITION TEAM

JEFFERSON CITY – Treasurer-Elect Eric Schmitt today announced his transition team. The transition team will be led by former State Treasurer Sarah Steelman and World Wide Technology Chairman, David Steward.

Former State Senator Jason Crowell and Academic Director for Entrepreneurship at Washington University Olin Business School Cliff Holekamp will also join the transition team.

Eric Schmitt was elected State Treasurer November 8, garnering 57 percent of the vote. Schmitt's 1,536,314 votes are the most votes ever received by a candidate for Missouri Treasurer. Prior to his election as State Treasurer, Schmitt served as an alderman in Glendale and as a state senator in the 15th district, representing parts of St. Louis County.
